Nutrition

The following balanced diet is served daily. This diet contains sufficient nutrients to properly nourish a growing child for one day and insures against possible feeding deficiency.

Averages the same as 3 cups
- 1-1/2 c fresh milk
- 1 c canned milk
- 1/4 c powdered milk

- 1 egg per day
- 2 servings fresh fruit
- 1 serving meat or cheese or peanut butter
- 2 servings of fresh vegetable
- 2 servings carbohydrates in form of cereal for breakfast--rice, noodles, or potato-muffins
- 1/4 pound butter

Surplus commodities received past month

The following items of food received from the Surplus Commodities Corporation are prepared by the W. P. A. cooks in the High School Cottage kitchen and are served in nutritious form for small children: lard, wheat cereal, graham flour, wheat flour, cornmeal, white flour, butter, cheese, prunes, dried milk, canned milk, canned tomatoes, peanut butter.

Sample menu (largely from surplus commodities)

Breakfast 7:30 a.m.
Prunes
Wheat Cereal with Top Milk & Brown Sugar
Hot Chocolate (canned milk)

Mid-morning 9:45 a.m.
Oranges

Noon 11:45 a.m.
Escalloped Tomatoes with Cheese
Carrot Sticks
Cornbread and Butter
Fresh Peaches (fruit season)
Fresh Milk

Mid-afternoon 3:30 p.m.
Wheat Muffins with Peanut Butter
Fresh Milk

Enrollment

Total enrolled during the period - 48
Active enrollment - 37

Ages are from 2 years and 8 months, to 6 years and 6 months.

You will note that the enrollment to start with was small. This was reported to the Rosenberg Foundation. Mrs. Leslie Ganyard, Executive Secretary of the Foundation, said that it was their experience in financing Day Care Centers that enrollment was usually small at the beginning. Furthermore, they felt that it was desirable that it be small in the beginning, as this gives the community an opportunity to gain experience and prevent serious mishaps when large enrollments are had.

In the issue "Day Shift Orphans" of the magazine Children in a Democracy, published by the California Citizens' Committee, White House Conference in Los Angeles, an article entitled "The Excellent Lodi Program" appeared. The first sentence is as follows:

> "We have selected Lodi for special mention because it is an outstanding example of community coordination and contribution, and because other small communities may get ideas from its plans."

> Earlier in the paper it says..."according to information coming in to us, few communities have completed plans for a community program. Lodi is an outstanding exception, Los Angeles has reached a definite philosophy as to the development of its program, and Oakland knows what it would like."

Enrollment

Active enrollment - 40
Boys - 22
Girls - 18

Our sustained enrollment for this period has been nearly twice as large as for the preceding month. Even though we have advertised through the newspapers and by posting notices in all camps, lavatories in the canneries, on the bulletin boards in the canneries, on the bulletin board in the U. S. Employment Service, and by personally contacting local ministers, we are still discovering that people who really need to know about the nursery are totally unaware of it. We recommend that the Coordinating Council, through its member organizations, make a conscientious effort to personally contact people who are in need of this service.

Meals Served July 22 to August 22

Breakfast		147
Mid-morning	257)
Mid-afternoon	205)	231
Noon		393
Total		781 Complete meals

Average cost per meal $.075 per person

We now have penny milk through the Surplus Marketing Administration which gives us $.016 per cup refund.

Physical examinations	26
To be examined next clinic	13

Our parents are employed:
23 cannery
1 laundry
1 office
1 teacher
2 fruit packers
2 farmers
2 fruit cutters
1 quartermaster at Stockton
1 fruit picker

Visitors

As you know, Lodi, pioneer in this field of Day Care Centers, has had, as a result, many visitors.

Dr. Mitchell, nutrition advisor to Paul V. McNutt, highly approved of the Lodi Day Nursery on a visit made August 11. She commented especially on the "ideal set-up" of personnel of Home Economics and Nursery School trained persons. The housing at Garfield was very adequate. She felt the community was being very foresighted and abreast of the times.

Visitors (continued)

State Welfare Department members stop in when passing through Lodi. Mrs. Larson, of the Department, has been a frequent visitor and always makes complimentary remarks.

Miss Wiems, College of Pacific Home Economics instructor, was very much interested in Day Care Centers and felt that Lodi's efforts were very successful.

Miss Russel, Regional Nutritional Director of the Western States, felt the program was highly satisfactory.

People from Merced visited and are copying our set-up.

Problems to be Met

The Garfield School must be vacated by September 12. A new location must be found to run until December 22 to finish out the six months' period.

We will lose our W. P. A. cooks September 28 when High School opens. If we have to hire our own cooks, we will have to raise enough money to pay the salary. Registration fees might be raised to pay part of it.

Need of more effort in reaching the people in need of this service.

Need for more volunteer assistance. If enrollment increases, two directors cannot adequately supervise constructive play activities.

Miss Amy L. Boynton, Treasurer,
Co-ordinating Council,
305 West Pine St.,
Lodi, California.

Dear Miss Boynton:

The treasurer of the Foundation has been requested to forward our check for the full amount of the grant, $2040.00, to you.

As we do not make out checks in favor of individuals he will make it payble to the Co-ordinating Council, transmitting it to you as treasurer and you can handle the disbursing in your usual way.

We are very gratified that you have been able to begin your program so soon and certainly shall look forward to visiting the project soon.

Sincerely yours,

Leslie W. Ganyard

Leslie W. Ganyard,
